Remarks:
Attached are five copies of an excellent manual on civilian pay put out by the General Accounting Office. I mentioned this previously and these are all the copies the Comptroller General's office had to spare. We feel at best that there would be a wide-spread demand for and use of this pamphlet and it may be needed to the point that we should reproduce sufficient copies for a wide distribution. In any case, any distribution should be controlled so that recipients can get the loose leaf amendments and additions
